

I am grateful for the honest, reliable and savvy expertise I could count on from Don Schiller and his firm. Don will tell you the truth and what to expect, even if it isn't what you want to hear. Family law can be quite personal, challenging and potentially devastating. With Don and his team, the outcome can be the best possible given the law and situation. Don chooses his words carefully, so I recommend listening carefully and heeding his counsel. My only regrets from a painful time in my life are when I didn't listen well enough. Don knows his business! He is the leader. I feel fortunate that his firm guided me along the way.

Good luck.
